

Flashes of Fun.

"That bonnet would scare the devil himself," said a Beekman street man to a Salvation army lieutenant. "That's the reason I wear it, sir," she said.

"Do you think," said a lady to her friend, "Mrs. S., that if you were to be taken away your husband would ever marry again?"

"Oh, I suppose he would," Mrs. S. replied. "I am his fourth wife, you know."

Little Dot: "Mamma, Dick is kissing me."

Mamma: "I am glad he likes you so well, dear."

"But it ain't right."

"Oh, it don't matter, pet. What makes you think it isn't right?"

"Cause nurse told papa so."

Omaha girl: "Your family are Unitarians are they not?"

New York girl: "We were, but ma and I have joined the Episcopalians. We like their forms better."

"Their forms?"

"Yes; you are up and down so much your dress don't get crumpled, you know."

Disgusted settler: "I have farmed that quarter section for two whole years and haven't raised enough to fatten a grass-hopper. It's nothing but red sand. If I'm not mistaken you told me I could make a living off of that farm from the very start."

Real Estate Agent: "That's what I told you, sir—you could make a living off of it, and so you could; the further off the better."

Critical husband: "This beef isn't fit to eat."

Wife: "Well, I told the butcher that if it wasn't good I would send you right around to his shop to give him a thrashing, and I hope you will take some one with you, for he looked pretty ugly, and I do not like the way he handled his big knife."

"Humph! Oh, well, I've seen worse meat than this."—Omaha World.

Johnny was sick last summer and had to stay in the house while there was a circus in town. Naturally it did not sweeten his temper and his mother had to talk to him. "My child," she said, "you must not complain because you are sick. It is very wicked. You want to go to heaven, don't you?" "Yes'm, he growled, "but not till after the circus. A little boy can go to heaven any time, but a circus ain't in town every day."—Reno (Nev.) Gazette.

They tell this story down in Georgia of brusque, old, unconstructed Bob Toombs. Just before his death he had a caller from Connecticut, and Yankee and Southerner had some pretty sharp political controversy for an hour or so.

"Well, there is one thing you will admit," ejaculated the Connecticut man finally; "you'll have to confess that we conquered you!"

"Conquered?" yelled Toombs. "Why, blast you, we just wore ourselves clear out a-lickin' you!"

"Now, George, you know it would be almost wicked in us to marry and you only getting $6 a week. But I'll tell you what I'll do. As soon as you have saved up $1,000 I'll marry you," said Matilda.

At the end of three months she asked him how much he had saved, and he reported $9.50.

"Well, George, dear, I guess that's near enough."

Wife (in a tone of sarcastic reproach): "What do you think, John, of paying $1.50 for an orchestra chair Saturday night and only putting 25 cents in the contribution box Sunday morning?"

John (the guilty one): "I think, my dear, it makes a $2 bill look sick."—Puck.

FARMERS' CLUB.

Form of Constitution and By-Laws.

CONSTITUTION.

This club shall be known as the Farmers' Club of _____ Township. Its object shall be to improve the condition of the the farmers and promote the cause of Agriculture.

Its officers shall consist of a President, Vice-president and Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be elected for the term of one year.

It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all regular or called meetings of the Club, and to announce the order of business. In his absence, the Vice-president shall preside. In the absence of both, the club may elect a temporary Chairman.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a record of the proceedings of the Club, and carry on such correspondence as the Club may direct.

In addition to the officers there shall be an Executive Committee, consisting of three or more members, as the Club may determine, to transact business appertaining to the Club.

Applications for membership must be made by petition, endorsed by one or more members of the Club. Such petition shall be referred to a committee, who will report at the next regular meeting, when a vote may be had upon the petition, a majority of the Club, not of those present simply, being necessary to elect to membership.

No one shall be eligible to membership unless practically engaged in Agriculture. Farmers' wives and daughters may be elected as honorary members.

There shall be no initiation or other fee charged. All necessary expenses shall be defrayed by proportionate assessment or by voluntary contributions, as the Club may decide.

The President, Vice-president and Secretary shall be ex-officio representative members of the Club to the County Club, when such is organized, and shall have full power to vote and act for the Club, unless the Club shall decide to elect other members as such representatives.

The Club shall have power to draft by-laws for its government.

The Constitution may be amended by giving two months' notice of the amendment proposed, in writing, but no amendment shall be carried without a two-thirds vote of the members of the Club.

BY-LAWS.

I. The meetings of the Club shall be held once a month (or oftener) at such time and place as the Club may direct. Special meetings may be called by the Executive Committee if deemed advisable.

II. The Order of Business shall be:

1. Calling the roll.

2. Reading minutes of preceding meeting.

3. Election of new members.

4. Report of committees.

5. Unfinished business.

6. New business.

7. Election of officers.

III. Elections shall be by ballot, the tellers appointed by the President, and those candidates receiving the largest number of votes, as counted before the Club, shall be declared elected.

IV. After the regular business, the Club may hear discussions, essays or addresses upon Agriculture, but no religious or political discussions will be permitted, or nothing calculated to mar the harmony of the Club.

V. Seven members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Each member will have the right to express his views fully upon any subject under discussion, but must do so courteously and not indulge in rudeness. Breach of courtesy will subject the offender to reproof, and if persisted in, he may be expelled by a vote of the Club. An expelled member cannot regain admission under one year.

Every member should feel it his duty to advance the interests of his fellow members and of his brother farmers, giving such aid and council as they may seek, when in his power to do so.

The above form, with slight modifications, will answer for the organization of County Clubs.

Glycerine in its pure state should never be used for chapped hands, as it absorbs moisture from the skin, leaving it dry and liable to crack. When moderately diluted with water, however, glycerine is an excellent application.
